

I'm opposed to concentration of media ownership. I believe that if ownership rules are eased, the likely result will be a threat to the traditional freedom of the press that has benefitted us so greatly. I for one do not wish to lament its passing. Please resist the urge to "deregulate."